

---

---

---

THE JUDICIARY

---

---

---

ABA Sings Bell's Praises

Top Judge Wins Legal Access Award

Chief Judge Robert M. Bell of the Maryland Court of Appeals received The American Bar Association's Louis M. Brown Award for Legal Access at the ABA's Mid-Year Meeting in Dallas last month. The annual award is given by the ABA's Standing Committee on the Delivery of Legal Services, charged with the improvement of the delivery of legal services to moderate-income people and the public generally. "Maryland Chief Judge Robert M. Bell has provided exemplary leadership to stimulate legal access in his state," said John S. Skilton, chair of the committee, in a statement.

---

Joe Surkiewicz
joe@mddailyrecord.com